ISCO88 - Occupation ISCO 1988

Please give the text of the source question(s) on the respondent's occupation used in your field questionnaire. If ISCO88-codes are not coded directly from the responses, but derived from a country-specific occupation coding scheme, please provide a table of correspondence between country-specific and ISCO88 codes attached as a separate file. Please report which kind of ISCO code you apply. The most common ones are the code developed by the International Labour Organisation (ILO) and the variant developed for the European Union (EU), ISCO-COM. If you apply another variant such as ISCO88-CIS developed by the Statistical Committee of the Commonwealth of Independent States, then please specify. Please do not enter standard ISCO88 codes here. But please report if your country adds or changes codes compared to ISCO88, if any.

Occupations should be coded on the 4-digit level of ISCO88. Occupational area 0 (Armed Forces occupations) needs some special attention. Since the ISCO variable is numeric, the 4-digit code 0110 will usually appear as 110 in the data file. It is therefore suggested that the only valid 3-digit code in the data file is 110 (Armed Forces). In some special cases information concerning the occupation may be insufficient for 4-digit coding. Instead of coding these cases as [9998] "inadequately described" use 3-digit coding. In those very special cases where 3-digit coding is applied, fill in a zero for the missing digit. Example: code 131 is coded as 1310.

Note	Answer categories marked by an asterisk were not included in the questionnaire. The discussion on coding for the variable PARTY_LR was opened out to an international panel of experts (Professors David Farrell, Michael Gallagher, Eoin O'Malley, Richard Sinnott and John Coakley) who have expressed reservations about the scale itself. Herewith their comments: "There seems to be substantial agreement that the scale itself is problematic, and that the mid-point poses a particular difficulty. There, insertion of the word "liberal" confuses matters, in that especially in southern Europe this has implications of the right rather than the centre. However, the scale is probably an integral part of the ISSP approach and thus has to be left unaltered". Notwithstanding these comments, the variable PARTY_LR in the current datasets have been derived from IE_PRTY as recommended by the Demographics Methods Group in the "ISSP Background Variables Questionnaire (BVQ) Version of 2012-06-26".
