Translation Note
Note	“No answer/Don’t know” have not been read aloud. For Primary education the previous recoding is not applicable in this round of dataset. We have very clearly given in Interviewer instructions; as mentioned in the current BVQ document; that by “attaining” any year means “completing” that year in education. This is different from our first round of ISSP (ISSP: Family and Changing Gender Roles) where our routine Country-Edu question only asked “Up To” while the ISSP coding required as “Completed”. We had to correct that anomaly by recoding the “Up to Primary” in “Completed Primary” based on the “Edu_Years” to make it at par with ISSP coding. As per our discussion with ISSP after our submission of that dataset; we changed our country education question from “up to” to “complete”; asking clearly for the “Completed” education and writing it verbatim to avoid any confusion whatsoever; so that it is fully in sync with the ISSP

	coding. Kindly refer to the “Interviewer Instruction” on BVQ_04 above. However we still have issues to deal with “Non-Formal Education” which includes “open-schooling” format or “private examination” format. For No Formal Education details – In India, open schooling is available in almost all parts of the country. So people may not have formally gone to school but there are big number of cases where people have taken examinations directly as “Private” student. The Indian Education boards allow them to appear different examination just by virtue of being 15 / 17 or 21 years of age. These students study on their own; without going to any formal schooling; but appear in High School; Intermediate or College examinations. This is very different from “Compulsory Schools”. Then there is big number of students studying in “Madarasas” or “Islamic Schools” which in many cases are not treated as “Formal Schools” and their certificates may or may not be considered at par with High School or College graduations depending on Federal laws and states. We have no other option but to keep them in “Non-Formal” education and explain them accordingly.

ISCO88 - Occupation ISCO 1988

Please give the text of the source question(s) on the respondent's occupation used in your field questionnaire. If ISCO88-codes are not coded directly from the responses, but derived from a country-specific occupation coding scheme, please provide a table of correspondence between country-specific and ISCO88 codes attached as a separate file. Please report which kind of ISCO code you apply. The most common ones are the code developed by the International Labour Organisation (ILO) and the variant developed for the European Union (EU), ISCO-COM. If you apply another variant such as ISCO88-CIS developed by the Statistical Committee of the Commonwealth of Independent States, then please specify.

Please do not enter standard ISCO88 codes here. But please report if your country adds or changes codes compared to ISCO88, if any.

Occupations should be coded on the 4-digit level of ISCO88. Occupational area 0 (Armed Forces occupations) needs some special attention. Since the ISCO variable is numeric, the 4-digit code 0110 will usually appear as 110 in the data file. It is therefore suggested that the only valid 3-digit code in the data file is 110 (Armed Forces).

In some special cases information concerning the occupation may be insufficient for 4-digit coding. Instead of coding these cases as [9998] "inadequately described" use 3-digit coding. In those very special cases where 3-digit coding is applied, fill in a zero for the missing digit. Example: code 131 is coded as 1310.

SPISCO88 – Spouse, partner: occupation ISCO 1988

Please give the text of the source question(s) on the spouse's occupation used in your field questionnaire. If ISCO88-codes are not coded directly from the responses, but derived from a country-specific occupation coding scheme, please provide a table of correspondence between country-specific and ISCO88 codes attached as a separate file. Please report which kind of ISCO code you apply. The most common ones are the code developed by the International Labour Organisation (ILO) and the variant developed for the European Union (EU), ISCO-COM. If you apply another variant such as ISCO88-CIS developed by the Statistical Committee of the Commonwealth of Independent States, then please specify.

Please do not enter standard ISCO88 codes here. But please report if your country adds or changes codes compared to ISCO88, if any.

Occupations should be coded on the 4-digit level of ISCO88. Occupational area 0 (Armed Forces occupations) needs some special attention. Since the ISCO variable is numeric, the 4-digit code 0110 will usually appear as 110 in the data file. It is therefore suggested that the only valid 3-digit code in the data file is 110 (Armed Forces).

In some special cases information concerning the occupation may be insufficient for 4-digit coding. Instead of coding these cases as [9998] "inadequately described" use 3-digit coding. In those very special cases where 3-digit coding is applied, fill in a zero for the missing digit. Example: code 131 is coded as 1310.

Translation Note	The age to be used for distinguishing children vs. toddlers – the [school age] in square brackets – is determined by the start of compulsory schooling in your country. In India the compulsory age to start elementary schooling is 5 years. So, those between the ages of 5 to 17 are referred to as children, while those under 4 years of age, are said to be "toddlers". छोटे बच्चों और बच्चों के बीच अंतर स्पष्ट करने के लिए : ..... उम्र सामान्यतः कसी

	देश में अनिवार्य स्कूली शिक्षा शुरू करने की उम्र से निर्धारित की जाती है। जैसे भारत में प्राथमिक शिक्षा शुरू करने की उम्र सामान्यतः 5 वर्ष मानी जाती है। ऐसी स्थिति में 5 से 17 वर्ष तक के लिए "बच्चा" शब्द का इस्तेमाल करते हैं और 4 वर्ष से नीचे के लिए "छोटा बच्चा" शब्द का इस्तेमाल करते हैं।
